TEN CENTS PER WEEK

ONE GIRL CLEANS UP MECHANICSBURG IN WATCH CONTEST

Nearly Three Hundred Loads of Trash are Collected in City

Second and Third in Contest Are Crowding First

PLENTY OF TIME FOR WINNING

Elizabeth Starrett, 218 Ashbrook avenue, 12th loads.
James Conley, 1025 South Third street, 86 loads.
James Todd, 428 South Third street, 55 loads.
Robert Mills, 324 South Fourth street, 24 loads.
John Wright, 9 loads.
Lavene Purcell, 324 North Fifth street, 4 loads.
Joe Armstrong, 1129 Trimble street, 2 loads.
May Ploum, 218 Clark street, 3 loads.
Tom Kopp, 615 North Fifth street, 1 load.

Interest in the contest for the gold watch offered by Mayor Smith for the largest trash pile accumulated by one child is increasing daily. Already 298 loads have been collected by the street department. One girl has just about cleaned up Mechanicburg by emptying her friends in her behalf, but there is time for other contestants to pass her record. If their friends will help. The contest closes April 30.

Any residents who clean their premises may call the city street department, and Ernest Hays, the street inspector, will have the trash hauled away free of charge and at the same time will credit the work to any child the resident may desire.

Miss Elizabeth Starrett is in the lead, and she is working hard to prevent any of the contestants passing her record. Every afternoon after school Miss Starrett visits the homes of her friends and induces the property owners to clean up vacant lots as well as residence property and give her credit for it. By her efforts some of the houses that have been partially destroyed by fire have been cleaned of the debris. Street inspectors tell this morning said that nearly all Mechanicburg had been given a thorough cleaning by her efforts.

James Conley is second in the race with 89 loads to his credit, and he is still working. James Todd is third from the top with 55 loads of trash that have been hauled off and Robert Mills is fourth with 33 loads to his credit.

After school hours is a splendid opportunity for the children to visit the homes of their friends and induce them to clean up and pile the trash in a convenient place near the alley or street. By notifying the street department the boy or girl can assure the property owner that they will see that the trash will be removed.

No Big Hats

Springfield, Ill., April 23.—Reverend C. C. Crenshaw, of Chicago, today introduced in the house a bill prohibiting the wearing, sale and manufacture of hats over eighteen inches in diameter at the broadest base and weighing five ounces.

Bishop Wilson Weaker

Baltimore, Md., April 23.—Bishop Alphonse W. Wilson of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, who is seriously ill at his home, is much weaker.

SAVES HER HUSBAND

Woman Rushes Back Into Fire With Tube in Arms.

Cincinnati, April 23.—Mrs. Alice Regan, who was injured during a fire in a double tenement building at 325 and 327 East Third street last night, died at the city hospital today. Three other persons were severely burned. Mrs. Regan, who forfeited her own life to save that of her husband, Wm. Regan, she had rushed down three flights of stairs, carrying her 8-months old baby in her arms.

Looking back from the street, she did not see her husband, and with the baby still in her arms rushed up the three flights of stairs again and awoke her sleeping husband, but she and the baby and her husband were severely burned before firemen raised ladders to the roof. The baby may die. The husband will recover.

CASTRO IN FRANCE.

St. Nazaire, France, April 23.—The steamer Versailles, with Castro on board, reached here at daylight. Castro was among the first to land. He will go direct to Paris. The French government made no effort to prevent his landing.

STEAMER SINKS.

Christiana, April 23.—The British steamer Oxford sank the Norwegian steamer Edith off Christiania last night. The captain of the Edith, his wife, one passenger and sixteen sailors were drowned. The Oxford rescued five seamen. The cause of the collision is unknown.

JUSTICE IN TROUBLE.

Spokane, April 23.—On the charge of embezzling $80,000 from the Great Northern railway, Merrill J. Gordon, formerly chief justice of the Washington supreme court, is under indictment today. He drew money for the fine, it is alleged, and appropriated it for his own use. Gordon resigned from the bench years ago and took charge of the railway's legal department.

BLOW UP FLAT.

Chicago, April 23.—A dynamite bomb exploded under a new flat building here early today and the structure was almost completely wrecked. Police declare the outrage is the result of labor troubles.

LACKAWANNA WHIRL.

Buffalo, April 23.—One was killed and several seriously injured when the Lackawanna passenger train No. 12, was wrecked near Craig's Station early today.

Independence of Bulgaria.

London, April 23.—England today formally recognized the independence of Bulgaria which threw off the sovereignty of Turkey last fall, following the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina by Austria-Hungary.

Pages Got Drunk.

St. Paul, April 23.—It has been discovered that pages employed by the legislature, ranging from thirteen to sixteen years in age, had a big carousal Wednesday night towards the close of the session. They got drunk on whisky stored in the building. Investigation is probable.

Relieving for Slayer of Actress.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 23.—James H. Gentry, an actor who is serving a life sentence in the penitentiary at Philadelphia for the murder of Madge Karke, an actress, fourteen years ago was today granted a rehearing by the state board of pardons on an application for a complete pardon. The application to come before the board on May 21, will be based on the ground of insanity.

HORSE JUMPS FROM TRAIN.

Crossed Animal Unhurt. After Leap From Fast Express.
Peru, Ind., April 23.—A trained horse shown in vaudeville theaters and circuses, and valued at several thousand dollars, jumped from a fast express train between Chicago and Peru last night. A telegram received here says that a searching party today found the animal at North Judson, Ind., and that it is unhurt except for a few cuts on the head.

BROUGHT HIS TOBACCO TO TOWN—IS ATTACKED.

Lee Curtis, a farmer residing near Lovelaceville in Carlisle county, swore out a warrant against Mike Iseman, Will Shearer and Jim Taylor charging them with breach of peace. Curtis was in Iseman's wagon yard Sunday and Washington streets, and alleges that they slugged him over the head with the butt of a whip. Several gashes were cut. Curtis came to Paducah with a load of tobacco.

DEMOCRATS WILL NAME DELEGATES TO CONVENTION

The Democratic convention of the Second senatorial convention will be called to order Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the auditorium at Wallace park, by Chairman W. F. Bradshaw, Jr., of the committee. Democrats will meet in their respective precincts in each county at the district tomorrow afternoon at the same hour to select delegates to the convention. Each precinct will have one delegate, who will cast for the candidate of his choice as many votes as were cast for the Democratic presidential electors in his precinct last November. The candidates are: W. V. Eaton, of McCracken; Hon. E. Barry, of Marshall; Bogard Wyatt, of Marshall; and John M. Moore, of Ballard. Carlisle county has no candidate.

Government Takes Vigorous Steps To Protect Christian Armenians From Assassination in Asia Minor

Reports to Christian Herald and From Foreign Officers Corroborate Stories of Massacre—In Turkey.

Washington, April 23.—In view of alarming dispatches from Turkey advising the state department of danger to Americans in the disturbed regions, steps were taken by President Taft today to secure the cooperation of the foreign governments who are closely in touch with Turkey to ascertain what measures are taken for the protection of missionaries and Christian Armenians.

Despatches to the state department from Teheran, Persia, today indicate that foreigners in the vicinity of Tabriz are in grave danger. Massacre is imminent, Minister Jackson says. Foreigners are not allowed to leave Tabriz. Jackson informed the department he is powerless to help the situation. The American ambassador at St. Petersburg was instructed to indicate informally to Russia that the United States must rely upon them for protection of American citizens in Persia.

Aid for Christians.

New York, April 23.—The Christian Herald received a communication today from W. W. West, Constantinople agent of the American Bible society, appealing for aid for the stricken Christians. West called that conditions in Asia Minor are not exaggerated. He says thousands are killed and thousands wounded and entire towns are without food.

Terrible Suffering.

Mersina, April 23.—Mersina, Berek, Adana and other towns are suffering from the massacre of Christians. Foreign officers were rushed here to stop the uprising. Many hardships for the sheer delight of witnessing suffering were practiced by fanatic Mohammedans on Christian Armenians. Starvation threatens Christians throughout the section.

Capture Sultan's Sons.

Geneva, April 23.—The Young Turk commission here received a dispatch from Stamboul today, stating that two of the sultan's sons were captured by Russian soldiers, who have trained their artillery on the sultan's yacht with the warning that it will be sunk if it attempts to convey the sultan to the capital.

Demand Surrender.

Constantinople, April 23.—General of the besieging army have sent a formal demand today for the surrender, threatening in case of refusal to force the abdication of the sultan at the point of the bayonet. This action was taken in pursuance of last night's joint conference at San Stefano.

Young Turks Win.

Young Turks have won another victory over Sultan Abdul Hamid, but whether the sultan will remain as sovereign of the empire is yet to be decided, although he has offered to place the affairs of the government

HARGIS JURY SWORN IN--DEFENSE HAS INNING IN BANK ROBBERY CASE

Irvine, Ky., April 23. (Special.)—The jury was sworn in and the opening statement made in the Hargis case.

Special Term in Calloway.

Murray, Ky., April 23. (Special.)—A special term of court to try the Calloway county night rider cases probably will be called by Judge Cook for some time in July, according to a statement made by the court after these cases had been continued at the present term. Judge Cook and J. T. Henshaw have a list of speaking appointments in this county, covering every day and night next week, and it is likely that court will adjourn Saturday unless a special judge is called for to continue the session.

Attorney D. H. Hughes, of Paducah, has been selected by agreement of parties to try the suit filed by defeated candidates at the Democratic primary who are seeking to have the election set aside because of alleged irregularities.

Hubert Holt, 16-year-old son of Ilen Holt, of near Hico, was drowned

ESCAPE FOILED BY GEORGE BROWN, CHAIN-GANG BOSS

The escape of Floyd Milliken, a desperate negro from the chain gang yesterday was foiled by George Brown, the assistant chain gang boss. Two shots were fired at the negro, who made an attempt to conceal an open knife in one sleeve.

Milliken is in the city jail for snatching a pistol in a woman's face, and was given a heavy fine. Last winter he escaped from the gang, but last week was brought back from Cairo and placed on the gang to serve 104 days. Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock Brown had the prisoners at work in the rear of Oak Grove cemetery. Milliken broke the lock of his chain so that it would not catch, although it had every appearance of being secure. In the suburbs Milliken dropped the chains and ran through a grove. George Brown started after him. Brown fired two shots, which missed Milliken by only a few inches. As Brown took a third shot the prisoner turned around quickly and threw up his hands.

Brown saw something drop down Milliken's sleeve, and upon a search found that the negro had an open knife concealed. The knife had been sharpened on a stone, and evidently Milliken intended to use it if necessary. The negro is powerful and is known to the police as a desperate man. None of the other prisoners attempted to run, and stood by and watched the negro caught.

in a creek near his home yesterday. The boy was afflicted with epilepsy and was stricken with a fit while crossing the stream.

The trial of Victor Jones who was indicted jointly with his brother Fred for the killing of Will Lewis, was begun in circuit court yesterday. The sentence of five years given Fred Jones, was considered light by the general public.

Helen Westlake Kidnaped.

Wickliffe, Ky., April 23. (Special.)—Helen Westlake, important witness for the state in the prosecution of John Bulger, charged with robbing the Ballard County bank at Hardmans, has been kidnaped and Patrolman Will Baker can't find her. It is believed she is concealed somewhere and being held for ransom, as the defense assumes to be as mystified as the prosecution in the disappearance. The state expected to prove that the defendants counted the loot at her resort in Paducah after the robbery. Roy Rice and Ida Morris, of Paducah, and Irene Roy, of St. Louis, are here to testify.

The defense concluded at 2 o'clock. The defense is an alibi. Bulger and Will Husbands, who were seen riding together the night of the robbery, said they were out for a pleasure drive.

The other cases were continued until next August.

Government Calls Soapmakers.

Buffalo, April 23.—Otto Laube, F. J. Arthur and Charles Harris, three soap manufacturers, have been subpoenaed to go before the federal grand jury and tell what they know of the operations of the American Naval Stores company. The concern is alleged to control the rosin and turpentine trade in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

Central C. S. I. Changes.

A change was made today in the local office of the Central Coal and Iron company. Mr. J. H. Small will succeed Mr. J. T. Hall, who has been in charge of the office here. Mr. Small comes from Owensboro. Mr. Hall will go to Louisville. Both Mr. Small and Mr. Hall have been with the company for 30 years and are experienced and valued men. Mr. John S. Hobson, of Central City, general sales agent of the company, is in the city today, inaugurating the change and looking over the office.

LABOR EXCHANGE.

New York, April 23.—The National Employment Exchange, which the promoters claim will cure the ills of the usual labor bureau, was incorporated here with the financial backing of the Russell Sage foundation, Harriman, Archibald, Thayer and others. The plan is to solve the unemployment situation here by finding positions for unskilled labor in the west and south. Promoters declare they will install branches in every part of the United States.

MORE TOBACCO IN PADUCAH THAN IN PREVIOUS YEARS

"More tobacco was brought into Paducah yesterday and today than in any other two days during the last fifteen years," said a prominent tobacco man, who has been in touch with conditions here during that time.

He estimated that more than 300,000 pounds were brought here. Besides the 54,000 pounds sold at Bohmer's loose leaf warehouse, the Italian buyers received about 150,000 pounds under contract, the American Snuff company received about 110,000 pounds and Hodge and O'Brien received large quantities each.

Wagon yards were overcrowded and those who could not find accommodations at the Western District warehouse and other convenient places, were forced to leave their tobacco outdoors all night.

At the loose leaf warehouse, which is getting three and four cents over the Louisville market price, there were no rejections today, and the medium tobacco offered brought from $2.90 to $3.75. E. J. O'Brien, of Louisville, was on the floor, in addition to the local buyers.

The warehouse has received orders for 50 hogheads to be shipped to Aurora, Ky., to be filled and shipped back.

The sales tomorrow probably will not be as large as today's sales.

Irony of Fate

Wickliffe, Ky., April 23. (Special.)—It is believed that John Dunlap, the Paducah contractor, who was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary for obtaining money by false pretenses from the Methodist church here, will secure a new trial, and not be compelled to serve the term. Steps are now being taken to make good the $1,000 complained of. It is an interesting fact that Dunlap built the court house, in which he was tried and convicted. It is a nice court house, too.

Roosevelt's Start

Makindu, British East Africa, April 23.—The special train, bearing Roosevelt towards Nairobi, reached here this morning after a slow trip from Mombasa. A number of American missionaries were waiting in the station to greet Roosevelt. Breakfast was served here and the journey resumed.

Edward McCabe, Sr.

News was received here today by the family of Mr. R. C. Calise, 933 Madison street, of the death of Mr. Edward McCabe, Sr., at Kirkwood, Mo., at 7 o'clock this morning.

Mr. McCabe is the father of Mr. Edward McCabe, Jr., of St. Louis, who married Miss Mabel Calise of Paducah and is well known here. He is a prominent citizen of Kirkwood and had been ill since December, from a complication of diseases. The funeral will be held at Kirkwood on Sunday.

BURLINGTON RAILROAD IS BUYING RIGHT-OF-WAY INTO METROPOLIS, ILL.

Town is Agog Over Fact That Road Has Purchased Some Valuable Property Along River Front There.

CLOSING OPTIONS COMPANY HAS HELD ON LAND IN MASSAC COUNTY FOR THREE OR FOUR YEARS

News Creates No Surprise in Paducah, as Ultimate Intention of Railroad Has Been Anticipated.

(SPECIAL TO THE SUN.)

Metropolis, Ill., April 23.—Metropolis is greatly excited over the transfer of most of the best property along the river front in the last few days, and what information has been secured points to the Burlington railroad system as the probable purchaser. Options on all this property, and on other tracts, which afford a splendid right of way into this city, were secured by representatives of this road three, and some four years ago, and this week, they are being taken in and from $4,000 to $5,000 a day is being paid out to the different owners of the land. There is no disputing the fact that everything now indicates that active construction work will be started on one or two roads into this place in the next few months.

Men who are in a position to know state it as a positive fact that both Metropolis and Paducah would have had new roads long ago but for an agreement among the different systems not to touch these points for a certain term of years. That agreement expired last year, and work would have started then, but for the panic. The roads have been preparing the way for active work for months, and today the Burlington, the L. & N., the Frisco and the "Big Four" have their surveys made into Metropolis, and have only been awaiting the settling of financial conditions to begin construction work. That these roads have an agreement about this point is indisputable, and the agreement comprehends the erection of a bridge across the Ohio here. All the engineers who have studied the question have said that this is the best point for a bridge, and there is no doubt of its being built, as a part of the plans of these great systems.

No Surprise Here.

The above bit of information from Metropolis is not surprising to Paducah men who are in touch with what is and has been going on in connection with the extensions of the four systems, mentioned in the article, to Metropolis, and thence on to this city. The promoters of the Paducah Northern had these things in mind when they secured the franchise for the belt around the city and the terminals last year. They reasoned that as soon as business conditions warranted, active construction work would be begun on several of the extensions and they planned to have terminals here to offer any of them that should knock at Paducah's doors.

None of these roads will have to make much of an outlay to reach Metropolis. The Frisco is only six miles distant; the L. & N. is at Shawneetown, the Big Four fifty miles away and the Burlington but little farther.

A study of the map of the roads will interest a Paducahan. The Paducah and Northern will bring these lines into Paducah; the L. & N. with the N. C. & St. L. branch, will have another line south from St. Louis, and the other lines will make traffic arrangements that will assure them entrance into the heart of Dixie.

Died When Rescue Arrived.

Joplin, Mo., April 23.—Buried yesterday beneath tons of rock in the M. and B. mine east of Joplin, Thomas Gibbs, operator of the mine, died just as the last shovel full of earth was removed this morning. His wife and daughter, who had been at the mine since the cave-in, collapsed when they heard of his death. The cave-in crushed and killed two others.

"Br'er Fox" Due Here.

"Br'er Fox II," in charge of M. B. Dean, Harry Daws and M. McLean, cutting through the waters of the Ohio at a rate of 25 to 27 miles an hour, is expected to arrive in this port some time between 3 and 5 o'clock. Br'er Fox left Cincinnati yesterday morning at 9 o'clock for New Orleans in an attempt to establish a new water speed record between these two cities. The distance is 1,554 miles and the boat is expected to make the run in 60 hours. To do this Br'er Fox will have to average 25 miles an hour. Br'er Fox is running only during the day.

MR. JOHN G. MILLER, JR., SPEAKS AT HIGH SCHOOL.

Mr. John G. Miller, Jr., spoke at the opening exercises of the High school this morning. His theme was "Reading," and it was splendidly presented in a thoughtful and practical way, calculated to impress the hearers. Mr. Miller is one of the talented young lawyers of the city, junior member of the firm of Miller & Miller.

Illegal Voting Cases in Calro Yesterday

After the Perjurers—Pure Ballot
League Looking Up All Voters
Sworn In at Election.

NUMBER UNUSUALLY SMALL

Calro, Ill., April 23.—Seven men arrested on Tuesday charged with illegal voting at the city election were arraigned for preliminary hearing in Judge Cowling's court. There were present as prosecutors States Attorney Wilson and members of the directing board of the pure ballot league as follows: W. B. Huette, president; T. C. Cleanden, secretary; T. J. and E. G. Kerth, W. D. Haunster, N. V. Lewis, Dr. Field, Dr. S. H. Cary, J. B. Magee, A. J. Reese, Chas. Feuchter, Douglas Hilday, John L. Parham, Chas. Cunningham, Henry Hassenjaeger, P. T. Langdon.

There were a number of witnesses nearly all negroes, and a large audience, also nearly all negroes. The defendants had no attorney, but the prosecuting attorney and court gave them every opportunity to make a defense, calling for any witnesses they wished to have, and questioning them only with a view to getting at the truth, not to confuse or to involve them.

The defendants were all negroes, but one, James Fitch, who admitted that his home was in New Albany, Ind., where he said he had a wife and children. He admitted that he had voted here Tuesday and also at the primary election April 13th, and that he was to get a dollar for his vote, but was arrested before he got it. He could not tell who promised him the money. He was held to bail in the sum of $300.

The negroes were Henry Eilla, Henry Spencer, John Young, Wm. Cole, Chas. Johnson and Eddie Keys. Three of these were arrested at the Fifth ward pole and three at the First ward pole. Keys was the man who was taken from Constable Hudson by the crowd on election day, and Hudson got him the next day. It developed yesterday that Keys had a right to vote and he was discharged.

Chas. Johnson was also discharged. He had been arrested by Officer Coney at the First ward pole, not at the instance of the League. The officer stated at the hearing yesterday that he had learned the man was entitled to vote. The other defendants told varying stories. Two of them admitted they did not live in the wards where they voted, and two others called for witnesses to prove that they did live where they voted. The witnesses demanded were brought in, but failed to substantiate the prisoner's statements.

Members of the Pure Ballot League who had been active in connection with the arrests, Messrs. Kerth and Lewis in the Fifth ward, and Parham in the First ward testified.

Five of the prisoners were sent to the county jail under $300 bond each to appear before Judge Dewey. They will have a hearing there, and be fined and given short terms in the county jail.

Important Case Monday.

The case of John Wilson who was arrested by Deputy Sheriff John S. Asthorpe, after he had come out of the First ward pole with a ballot in his pocket, will have a hearing Monday. Attorney Leek has been employed to defend him. Wilson confessed when arrested that he had been sent in to steal a ballot and bring it to some one outside, for which he was to be paid, but the sum was not stipulated. It is understood that he will deny making such a statement and will contend that he acted through ignorance, having been told to go in and vote, and there being a number of people in the poll, with no one to tell him what to do with the ballot, he did not think it made any difference whether he voted it or not.

After Perjurers.

The league officers are not satisfied with catching these small-fry. They are after bigger game. They have procured lists of all the men who were sworn in at all the polls on Tuesday, which, by the way, are not nearly so large as at former elections; and they will trace the voter in each case. If any of them shall be found illegal, the League purposes to go after the men who swore them in, as well as the voters themselves, the purpose being to make men more careful about going on affidavits. While the ordinary illegal voter can be found guilty only of a misdemeanor, the man who swears falsely to an affidavit can be sent to the penitentiary for perjury.

Judge Gordon Arrested.

Spokane, Washington, April 23.—Judge M. J. Gordon, former counsel for the Great Northern railway, was arrested today on indictments charging embezzlement of funds from the railway company while acting as its attorney. His bond for appearance was fixed at $2,000.

Women's Secrets

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them. Write without fear as without fee, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

DOLLIVER MAKES HARD CRITICISM

Declares Many Schedules are Too High

Debate With Aldrich Results in Several Bitter Remarks—Democrats Are Forced to Laugh.

SENATOR HITS NEW ENGLAND

Washington, April 23.—Two Republican senators, Nelson, of Minnesota, and Dolliver, of Iowa, sharply antagonized the senate committee on finance during the consideration of the tariff bill. Nelson denounced the measure, declaring that the cotton,
glass and woolen schedules were too high. He said that placing a high duty on woolen manufactured goods 50 per cent higher than the duty on raw wool was unjust. He believed the schedule would stand a material reduction.

Gallinger, interrupting, referred to the closing of the woolen mills of New Hampshire by the low rates of the present tariff bill.

Nelson energetically declared that was the same spirit that had actuated
New England in its criticism of any effort to reduce the higher rates that had prevailed upon her products.

He declared that the hard times of the '90s had come largely from the panic of 1893 and added: "All the stagnation from 1894 to 1897 was not owing to the Wilson tariff bill. I would no more think of charging the Dingley tariff with the panic of 1907
than I would charge the panic of 1893 to the Wilson bill."

Nelson said the silver agitation was largely responsible for the panic of 1893.

Lively Debate.

Dolliver's severe criticism precipitated a lively debate. He declared that not only were the duties imposed
by the Payne-Aldrich bill too high,
but that they were so worded as to result in a large increase of rates
without definite indication of such increase in the schedules. He said he proposed to have a full explanation
of the schedules and to give other senators an opportunity to vote to

LADIES, WHY NOT PRESERVE YOUR YOUTH AND BEAUTY?

Nothing so detracts from the attractiveness of women as dull, faded
lusterless hair.

There is no excuse for this condition nowadays, because notice is her-
by given to the readers of The Sun
that Parisian Sage, the quick acting hair restorer, is now on sale in Paducah at the drug store of W. J.
Gilbert and is sold with a rigid guarantee at 50 cents a bottle.

Since its introduction into America, Parisian Sage has had an immense sale, and here are the reasons:
It is safe and harmless.

It cures dandruff in two weeks, by killing the dandruff germ.

It stops falling hair.

It promptly stops itching of the scalp.

It makes the hair soft, glossy and luxuriant.

It gives life and beauty to the hair.
It is not sticky or greasy.

It is the dearest perfume hair
could make.

It is the best, the most pleasant
and invigorating hair dressing made.

For sale by leading druggists everywhere. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.

Fight shy of the druggist who offers you a substitute, he is unworthy
of your confidence.

This is what Mrs. Elizabeth E. Anderson, Mechanicsburg, Pa., writes:
"I had given up hope of ever being cured of dandruff, when I purchased a bottle of Parisian Sage. It has entirely removed the dandruff, and has started a growth of new hair, and all this after having been troubled
for 15 years. I cheerfully recommend Parisian Sage."

ARE YOU DEAF?

WHY LET YOUR FRIENDS SUFFER?

Your friends are more sensitive about your deafness than you,
yourself, as why should you impose on them?

You probably know that a telephone operator's hearing is the most acute. This is due to the fact that the electrical vibrations act upon the ear drums in such a manner
as to produce a very keen sense of sound—such is the principle of

THE ELECTROPHONE.

It is a tiny, electric telephone that fits on the ear, and which, the instant it is applied, magically the sound waves in such a manner as to cause an astonishing increase in the clearness of all sounds. It overcomes the buzzing and roaring ear noises, and also so constantly and electrically exercises the nerves and vital parts of the ear that naturally the natural, unaided hearing itself is gradually restored to perfect condition.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because of deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused
by it—heart disease, pneumonia,
heart failure or
apoplexy are often
the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to develop
the kidney poisoned blood will attack the vital organs,
causing catarrh of
the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in
the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result
from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained
quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it,
and overcomes that unpleasant necessity
of being compelled to go often throughout the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect
of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address,
Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y.

When writing mention reading this pen-cious offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name,
Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell
you something in place of Swamp-Root—
if you do you will be disappointed.

lower some of the rates.

"The woolen schedules," he said,
"ought to be reduced. I undertake
to say that for two years this schedule has been a bad advertisement for the Republican party. I intend to so vote as to adhere as far as possible
to every reduction in the Dingley
rates, that was made by the house committee, to every reduction made by the senate committee. Wherever
I find a rate above the Dingley rate
I reserve the right to inquire into the question of whether, after twelve years of prosperity with every industry multiplying output and increasing its capacity, whether after twelve years of such industrial progress, it might be possible to scale
down some of the schedules of the bill."

Like Dingley Bill.

"While it may be," said Dolliver,
evidently referring to the statement
by Aldrich "that there are only a few increases and quite large numbers of reductions in the bill, I venture to say that when we are through with it,
it will be so nearly like the Dingley
law that men will wonder what was the extraordinary occasion that called us here. This session certainly was called to increase the schedules of the Dingley law."

Dolliver asserted that by a system
of rating cotton goods was higher on account of the presence of the small percentage of wool, there had been obtained a very greatly increased protection, which was not apparent to the ordinary person who might read
the law.

Aldrich interrupted that there was no such result in the bill, but as the woolen schedules are before the senate
he would undertake to clearly demonstrate that such criticism was unwarranted.

Dolliver replied that he had been told that the system of classifying
cotton goods had been put into the Wilson bill by the cotton manufacturers themselves, and that when the Dingley law was framed in 1897, it was perpetuated, and he said it was today in the present bill.

Aldrich asserted that no manufacturer had been before the committee
on finance in regard to this schedule
and added that every change had been upon the suggestion of the government experts, and was not only defensible, but would be fully defended at the proper time.

GIRL KILLED BY PASSENGER TRAIN

Struck Her as She Was Walking Along Track

Madisonville Will Have Cleaning Up Campaign—Man Drops Dead.

KILLING IN THE MOUNTAINS

Frankfort, Ky., April 23.—Falling
before the fast flying east-bound Louisville & Nashville passenger train
No. 16, Miss Mattie Conway, aged 22
years, night long-distance telephone operator for the Home Telephone company, of this city, was killed yesterday afternoon at 4:05 o'clock in Galley's cut, near this city. She was walking on the track with her four-year-old sister from the residence of her father, Polk Conway, to the residence of Mrs. Sudduth, a neighbor and relative. The child leaped from the track just as the engine bore
down on her sister, and she escaped
unhurt.

Found Dead at His Gate.

Madisonville, Ky., April 23.—Manford Holland, a bachelor, aged about 60 years, a well known citizen of Madisonville and a principal owner of the Holland-Hoss Machine Works,
was found dead Tuesday night about 10 o'clock with his neck lying directly across a chain that was used for the purpose of keeping the gate fastened.
He had probably been there two hours, as the body was cold and stiff when discovered. When seen upon at 7 o'clock he was apparently in the best of health. The coroner's jury decided a death on account of heart failure. Mr. Holland is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Charles Hoss and Miss Lou Holland, of this city, and Mrs. Florence Moorman, of Louisville.

Will Clean Up the Town.

Madisonville, Ky., April 23.—The
civic improvement league, which was organized in this city about two weeks ago, held its first regular meeting Tuesday evening in the Elks'
club rooms, and matters of importance were brought before the meeting. The number, which was near 50 members, had an addition of 20
more at this meeting.

The officers of this league are women who are possessed of such rare
energy and ability that the league is sure to be a "go."

The town has been divided into sections and the officers have appointed two ladies to each section. Work will be done in a thorough manner,
as it is the plan of the members to
first canvass by sending a postal card
to the home, then make a personal canvass; by so doing they will be able to arouse the greatest interest.
It is the sole purpose of this league
to get each individual home interested in the "clean-up proposition" and have them take measures to get everything about the premises in a perfectly sanitary condition. This league movement is gaining and meeting with great approval and indorsement.

Drowned in the Mississippi.

Hickman, Ky., April 23.—Yesterday evening about 6 o'clock Jim Smithwick and Jim Morris, while walking along the river, discovered that their skiff had broken loose and was getting away. Smithwick jumped into a little row boat and started for the skiff, but the waves were so high that his boat capsized. He hung on the boat, crying for help. Morris rushed down the river bank, following Smithwick as he floated down
and trying to find a skiff to go to his rescue, but could find none. Smithwick held on to the floating skiff for six miles before he gave up. He was a good swimmer, but it is thought he chilled and could not swim. His prayers and cries could be distinctly heard by Morris. His body has not been found.

Madisonville is Winner.

Madisonville, Ky., April 23.—The
county board of education held a meeting Monday evening for the purpose of deciding the important question where the county high school
should be located. After many arguments and a discussion by the various representatives from the four different towns contesting for this honor, Hanson, Earlinton, Dawson Springs
and Madisonville, the latter won.
Plans were immediately discussed for the building of the structure. It has been arranged to construct a $10,000 school. The exact location has not been determined.

Mountain Killing.

Middlesboro, Ky., April 23.—John Bowman and French Daniel engaged in an altercation at the mouth of Yellow Creek. Bowman shot Daniel, killing him instantly. Bowman claims
the killing was done in self-defense.
Bowman was placed under arrest.
Both men were employed on the Black Mountain railroad in Virginia.

Death Comes Quickly.

Cadiz, Ky., April 23.—James H.
Lawrence, a prominent citizen of this county and uncle of Gen. Henry R.
Lawrence and John S. Lawrence, of the Cadiz Record, died very suddenly
at his home, five miles south of here, yesterday afternoon. He had been here to the circus and returned home
about sundown with one of his sons,
returning to be enjoying his usual

health, which, however, had not been good for several years.

He was called in to supper with the other members of the family, and in a minute or two after sitting down to the table he suddenly gasped for breath once or twice and was dead
before the others at the table could get to him. He was 67 years of age and leaves a wife and several children, all of whom are grown.

Recovery is Doubtful.

Lancaster, Ky., April 23.—Miss
Mattie Lee Hubble, the only daughter of State Senator R. L. Hubble, lies in a serious condition at a Louisville infirmary, where she was taken
for an operation, and it is reported
here that her recovery is doubtful.
She is still a school girl, about 16
years of age.

Aged Man Killed By Train.

Olive Hill, Ky., April 23.—An unknown, aged man stepped in front of a freight train at Kilgore last night
and was killed. Just before he died
he told some one his name was Hale
and that he lived in Cincinnati.

Venerable Mountain Woman Dies.

Williamshurg, Ky., April 23.—Mrs.
Joshua Pope died yesterday morning
at the home of her son, R. L. Pope, here, aged about 65 years. She leaves besides a husband a large family of children, among them Attorney R. L.
Pope, of this place, and Dr. Cook
Pope, of Knoxville.

Daily Thought.

Enjoyment stops where indolence

begins.—Pollock.

We never knew what a desperate character Hon. B. Barry, editor of the Benton Tribune-Democrat was,

until we heard accounts of Bogard

Wyatt's speech about him at Calvert

City. We knew he is for the county

unit bill, and that he gave the Beck-

ham crowd a lot of trouble while he was representative from the Lyon-

Marshall district; but it would seem

he was then trying only to make up for a life of misdeeds. According to Bogard, Judge Barry's career has been one long, bloody series of se-cessionations and crime. When he comes to Paducah we surely will arm

ourselves. And, yet, he doth, indeed, appear the mildest mannered

man that ever scuttled a ship or cut

a throat.

When the opposing minority party

enough to the party organ wherein

the trouble lies?

If the true party organ would direct its attention to keeping its own

AN UNPERFORMED DUTY.

The outcome of the trial in Paducah

wherein the negro victims of the Birmingham aid of last year obtained a judgment of $25,000 against

the members of the mob, whom they sued in the United States court for civil damages, ought to please everybody who has the slightest regard for the principles of law and the integrity of justice, says the Courier-Journal.

The raid in question was a flagrant example of rabid lawlessness. The complexion of the victims had nothing to do with the merits of the case.

Most of the outrages perpetrated by night riders in the past two years

were inflicted upon whites. The whites were entitled to protection,

which they did not get. In like manner, the negroes around Birmingham

were entitled to protection, which they did not get. They were, instead,

the prey of a gang of criminals who

overrode the law, made themselves

instruments of oppression, killed and maimed and burned. Of course, the victims should have recompense from

those who so persecuted them—

recompense which, in whatever sum

it may come or through whatever

medium it may be gained, can never

wipe out the black stain which the

raid itself has fixed upon the records of the state.

The judgment should not, under any circumstances, be allowed to lapse. The guilty raiders should be made to pay for their diabolical frolic

SHORT SESSION LAST NIGHT.

The board of aldermen last night

ordered concrete sidewalks on Eleventh street between Broadway and

Jefferson streets, but refused to concur in the action of the council board

ordering sidewalks on Broadway between Eleventh street and Fifteenth street.

Two petitions figured in the last proposition. Forty property owners

beyond Fifteenth street, who were compelled to lay sidewalks last year

petitioned for the sidewalks to complete the work from the river to the city limits, and 32 property owners

between Eleventh and Fifteenth

streets protested against the improvement. About a half block on the south side west of Eleventh street belongs to the Illinois Central and has baseball team and the team of the Paducah Light and Power company.

Rivalry between the two teams is heated, and the game will be attended by a large crowd owing to the unusual conditions under which it will be played.

The gas company team has been named the "Hot Air" team, while the Light and Power has not selected a name yet. In the agreement, which was signed by the two teams it is stipulated that the captain of the losing team shall be ducked in the Wal-

BRUCE HONORS JOHN CALVIN
 Ambassador Denies, However, That He Former Was Liberal.

Baltimore, April 23.—The principal speaker tonight at the celebration of the 40th anniversary of the birth of John Calvin was Ambassador Bryce of Great Britain.

After referring to the enormous influence of Calvin's views, Mr. Bryce said:
 "But though Calvin was more than any one else the modern founder of a Republican system in the church," continued Mr. Bryce, "he was by no means a liberal in the modern sense of the word. He justified and approved in practice religious persecution, as indeed did nearly all the great reformers of the sixteenth century, and he held the state bound to obey in many things the orders of the church. Not till long after his time was the doctrine that the state and the church ought to be entirely distinct and that religious opinion should be entirely free proclaimed in England and in North America by Roger Williams, the illustrious founder of Rhode Island."

Will Not Answer.
 Mercer, April 23.—Mrs. James Boyle was taken before the grand jury today as a witness against her husband. When her attorney learned she was being questioned he immediately demanded to see her and positively instructed her to refuse to answer questions.

DISESTABLISHMENT BILL IS IN

Change in Wales Church System Put Before Parliament.

London, April 23.—The long-promised bill for the disestablishment of the church in Wales was introduced in the house of commons today by Premier Asquith. For the last forty years Welshmen have been agitating in this direction. A vast majority of the people are non-conformists, and they will awaken to a most strenuous fight. The bill is sure to pass the house of commons, and it is sure to be opposed by the bishops in the upper house, where its fate is problematical. It proposes that the disestablishment become effective Jan. 1, 1911.

DENY NEW DEBATING SCHEME

Chicago Packers Answer Charge of Excessive Damage Claims.

Washington, April 23.—Morris & Co., the Chicago beef packers, in replying to a recent letter written to the attorney-general, disclaim any intention to use their claims against the railroads for loss or damage to beef in transit as a device to secure rebates. The attorney-general in his letter stated in effect that investigation had disclosed the fact that certain packers, whether with unlawful intent or not, had obtained excessive damages for beef injured or lost, and said that the practice of overvaluing dressed beef transported and the use of such overvaluation as a basis for claims against the railroads where the beef is injured or destroyed in transit must be abandoned at once.

GETS HEAVY DOSE

FOR SELLING BOOZE—$200 AND 40 DAYS.

A Total of Over 540 Days Is Now Recorded Against Little Black Johnny.

Mayfield, Ky., April 23.—Little Johnny Smith's troubles continue to increase instead of diminish. Thursday morning he was brought out of jail and arraigned before Justice E. L. Garnett on the charge of selling whisky. Two charges were preferred against him. He had no attorney and pleaded guilty on one of them, but declared that he was innocent in the other. The court then proceeded to have Johnny tried and a jury was summoned. In one case he was fined $100 and 40 days in jail and in the other one he was fined $100, making a total of 240 days, without mentioning the costs. About a week ago Johnny was taken in custody in East Mayfield by Policeman John Lewis. He had a suit case containing several bottles of "joy water," and later pleaded guilty in five cases, making a total of over 300 days in jail. Now comes 240 more days, which makes the number swell up to 540 days.

Prohib Win of Florida.

Tallahassee, Fla., April 23.—The McMillen bill providing for the submission of the question of state-wide prohibition passed the senate on final reading this afternoon by a vote of 24 to 7 amid scenes of wildest confusion. The bill provides for the submission of the question of state-wide prohibition to the qualified voters of the state at the general election to be held in November, 1911. When the McMillen bill reached the house it was immediately referred to the committee on constitutional amendments.

Letting B. P. W. Contract.

The board of public works met this afternoon for the purpose of signing the contract with the Babcock-Wilcox company, of Cincinnati, for the installation of a boiler at the city light plant, and the contract with J. A. Jewell & Son, of Cincinnati, for the erection of the brick smokestack. Representatives of both firms are in the city, and work will begin at once on the improvements. All of the material will be purchased in Paducah, and as far as possible the firms will give employment to Paducah workmen.

entirely in the hands of ministers responsible to parliament.

Tewfik Pasha, grand vizier, has arranged a compromise with the chief of the Constitutional party, and this has been confirmed by the sultan personally to several Constitutionalists, who with utmost secrecy were introduced into the Yildiz Kiosk in addition to promising to withdraw himself from administrative activities the sultan agrees to a change in the personnel of the troops guarding the palace and the replacing of the Constantinople garrison by troops from the corps which has practically invested the city for days.

While at present there is little fear of bloodshed within the city there is much to be feared from riots and massacres now sweeping many districts of the dominion. Newspaper extras issued announce that the crisis was past and this caused general relief.

The fleet sailed this afternoon for the Mediterranean ostensibly for maneuvers, but in reality as a guarantee that this investing army would meet with no opposition from the navy.

The sultan, or those acting in his behalf, have supplied the Constitutionalists with a list of the principal members of the palace guards which brought about the events of the last week.

It is understood that there would be no reprisals except that the palace officials implicated are to be dismissed. The cabinet offered to resign, but upon the advice of Grand Vizier Tewfik Pasha decided to remain in office for the present. The cabinet practically is a Young Turk cabinet, because the ministers who were appointed since April 13th are in no way disposed to do anything in opposition to the wishes of the committee of Union and Progress. The principal commanders of the army of investment and the garrison within the city, are acting together. Inman Pasha said today that the warships could be relied upon to support the parliament and the committee.

The Galata has published what purports to be a telegram from Monastir, saying that the provincial caliph has obtained from the highest ecclesiastical court of his jurisdiction a decision to the effect that the sultan is no longer capable of ruling over the faithful.

The appearance of the sultan in the street today on his way to the White Mosque to attend the ceremony of Selamlik made an occasion for an unexpected demonstration of reverence towards him. The worn and haggard sultan rode in the open carriage and answered the plaudits of the multitude on the way with nods.

NEWS OF COURTS

Circuit Court.

41. V. Keebler was dismissed this morning in circuit court on the charge of detaining a woman against her will. It was alleged by Keebler's 13-year-old stepdaughter that he was guilty of the charge, but after the evidence was heard the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

The charge of malicious shooting against Emma James, colored, who shot her husband, Ed James, was fled away, and instead she will be tried for lunacy.

The grand jury this morning returned an indictment against Pat Lamore for the murder of Deb Mason, and his trial was set for the eighth day of the term. Lamore was released on a bond of $3,000.

Rosie West, colored, charged with malicious cutting, failed to appear in court and her bond of $300 was forfeited.

The cases of Eugene Edwards, colored, charged with housebreaking and obtaining money by false pretenses, have been set for the sixth day.

Annie Mitchell and Willie Mitchell were dismissed on the charge of obtaining money by false pretenses. They were held over to the grand jury on the charge of selling stolen junk to scrap iron dealers.

Charles Keene, on the charge of obtaining money by false pretenses, was given one year in the penitentiary.

Sam Bryant was dismissed on the charge of selling liquor to a minor.

The grand jury returned an indictment against Emma James, colored, charged with shooting her husband, Ed James.

In Bankruptcy.

Frank M. Ferriman, a traveling salesman, of North Fifth street, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy this morning in federal court. The liabilities of the petition are $920 and no assets.

Police Court.

Drunk—Jim Kirksey, fined $1 and costs. Carrying weapons concealed—Walter Simms, fined $25 and costs and sentenced to 10 days in the county jail. An appeal was prayed and granted. Breach of peace—E. B. Bruce, two charges, one charge fled away and fined $10 on the other. He was recognized for his good behavior in the sum of $300. Jack Slagle and Dave Slagle, continued to April 24. Grand larceny—Tom Evans and George Barnes, held to answer, bail fixed at $300 each. It is alleged that Evans and Barnes stole a fish net from Short and Kinder, fish dealers, worth $26. Obtaining money by false pretenses, and fugitive from justice—George Collins, held for the officer from Memphis.

Higher Criticism and Rum Caused Downfall of the Rev. G. W. Briggs

The Rev. Dr. George Waverly Briggs, once the most famous Methodist preacher in Texas and known in a dozen states as the "Moody of the south," was a prisoner yesterday in the Jefferson Market police court on suspicion of having stolen a few miserable trinkets from a drug store. He attributes his downfall to four things—"higher criticism," the burning of his home, the loss of a manuscript in a railroad wreck and rum. He is a cousin of the Rev. D. Charles A. Briggs, whose heresy trial in the Presbyterian church several years ago was of international interest. The southern pastor read all that his famous cousin wrote, and strayed from the old beliefs which he had preached for twenty-five years. He might have been bishop of Texas but for this.

That was ten years ago. Last fall, at the age of fifty-eight, he was converted to the old faith in the Jerry McAuley Mission on Water street.

"I was a messenger without a message," he told them at the mission. "I left the church to go on the lecture platform, grew to believe that there was nothing in religion, and then my misfortunes came thick and fast. At first my lecture fees were enormous, much more than I had ever earned in the pulpit, and I became worldly and arrogant. Then my lecture bureau failed and I was left almost penniless. My house burned down and all my manuscripts but one were destroyed. They were my sole stock in trade. With the manuscript of a book I started for New York to seek a publisher. In a railroad wreck the manuscript was lost. That was the last straw. In my Christian years I could have borne all that and more with cheerfulness, but as an unbeliever I had no refuge except in liquor and I fled to that."

Convinced that he did have a message, the preacher recovered his old beliefs and only two months ago was sent to Boston to assist the Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman at revival meetings in Tremont Temple. The reclaimed heretic and drunkard addressed 7,000 men night after night and his preaching was one of the great features of the revival.

Just what happened to him in the next six weeks he doesn't know himself. He has not been drinking or using drugs. Detective Flynn, of the Central office saw him going from one pawn shop to another on Third avenue trying to raise money on some atomizers and arrested him on suspicion. The atomizers were identified as property taken from Henry Bohmfalk's pharmacy, No. 600 Third avenue. The old man could not explain why he had them.

Magistrate House adjourned the hearing until today, and released the prisoner under bond of $100, given by Chief Inspector Walter S. Mayer, of the New York postoffice.

"Dr. Briggs and I were boys together in Galveston, Tex., said Mayer, and I have always known him as a big man in my part of the country. He is a graduate of the university of Alabama, and was for five years the editor of the Southern Christian Advocate."

From the court Dr. Briggs went to No. 1025 Simpson street, the Bronx, where he and his wife and three sons are staying temporarily with Mrs. Briggs' sister.

When Supt. Wyburn, of the Water street mission, called there yesterday afternoon to see what he could do, Dr. Briggs covered his face with his hands and refused to see his old rescuer, saying that he was too much ashamed.—New York World.

COLORED SCHOOL FOR THIS STATE

Will Be Established Near Louisville

Prof. John Wirt Dinsmore, of Berea, is in Paducah in its interest.

SOME LETTERS HE CARRIES

Prof. John Wirt Dinsmore, of Berea college, is in the city in the interest of Lincoln Institute, the new colored school on the plan of Tuskegee, for which they are trying to raise $50,000 by popular subscription in order to secure $450,000 to start with. They will secure 1,000 acres of land in the vicinity of Louisville, and President Taft is expected to christen the spot in May.

The school probably will absorb the Eckstein Norton Institute.

Among the letters of endorsement which Professor Dinsmore carries are the following:

Governor Willson says:
My Dear President Frost:
I believe that your plan for an industrial school for the colored people is one of the greatest promises of usefulness, and sincerely hope it will succeed.

It is not a party matter, nor a selfish matter, but of most fundamental value to the entire commonwealth. It will not only be beneficial to the colored people, whose prosperity will be greatly increased, but it will also benefit all the people of the state in improving the intelligence and effectiveness of all the workers of this race.

And it will not merely affect its own students, but as these go out they will be an example leading all others to take more pride in skilled workmanship and more pleasure in the common occupations of life. Yours truly,

AUGUSTUS E. WILLSON.

"A High Money Value to Both Races."

My Dear President Frost:
From a business standpoint the proposed colored school would prove a most profitable investment.

The colored people will be given more pleasure in their work, and as they earn more they will buy more. Almost every line of business—the clothier, the grocer, the coal man, the manufacturer, the laborer, would benefit. The employer of domestic service or of other colored labor would be glad to pay higher wages for greater efficiency.

Should such a school be located near this city it would draw students from all parts of the state, who would trade here not only for themselves but for their families, and the equipment and maintenance of the school would, year in and year out, add to the trade and prosperity of Louisville. It has a high money value to both races.

C. C. STOLLS.

"A Pressing Necessity . . . Beyond Computation."

My Dear President Frost:
You have in deepest sympathy and interest in the great work which you have undertaken to provide a school for the colored youth of Kentucky of the Booker Washington pattern. Such a school beyond all question, is a pressing necessity. No school of this type exists within a radius of several hundred miles. This school, when established will fill a much needed want in its facilities in training young colored men and women as teachers and industrial workers. It will increase the efficiency of those who take advantage of its training beyond computation.

I heartily endorse your efforts and commend your purpose to those who would improve the prospects and efficiency of the negro race.

Wishing you every success, I am, faithfully yours,

CHARLES E. WOODCOCK.

STATE BANKS

WILL BE CALLED ON FOR STATEMENTS IRREGULARLY.

Secretary of State Ben Bruner Will Not Let Them Know at What Times.

Frankfort, Ky., April 23.—Secretary of State Ben L. Bruner decided to abandon the old custom of calling on banks and trust companies for their statements at the end of each quarter, and will call upon them at any time, as in the case of National banks, for a statement showing the condition at any date during the year. The following is a letter he has prepared to notify the banks and trust companies of his change in plans:

"The policy of this department in the future will be not to call for statements of banks and trust companies at the close of each quarter, but will be to call at different times during the year and the next call will be a back date.

"For instance, I will call say on February 29 for the condition that your books show your institution was in on February 12. When I make this call on the 20th your report must be in this office within five days from the date of the call, as I intend to enforce section 594 of the Kentucky statutes to the letter, for there are certainly too many banks that carelessly neglect and pay no attention to their reports.

"Although I sent an urgent letter March 20, men actually confess by their letters they are writing in here that they did not even read the call. My intention is to put the state banking business on a footing with national banks, and with the proper cooperation it will be no trouble to do this."

Dr. Bruner intends to furnish every bank in the state with a book of laws governing banks and if the bankers do not pay attention to his call, he intends to have them indicted.

—Miss Rosa Melgan, the 12-year-old daughter of Engineer and Mrs. James Melgan, of 1000 South Fourth street, was thrown from her pony while riding near home yesterday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock and was rendered unconscious for several minutes. Dr. J. D. Robertson was called to attend the injured girl.

DON'T FORGET!

THE BARRIER

BY REX BEACH

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY HARPER & BROTHERS

"Lee has made a strike—a wonderful strike—richer than the Klondike. I came as fast as I could, because tomorrow everybody will know about it, and it will be too late."

"Too late for what?"

"For us to get in on it, of course. Oh, but won't there be a stampede? Why, all the people bound for Dawson on the next boat will pile off here. Then the news will go up river and down river, and thousands of others will come pouring in from everywhere, and this will be a city. Then we will strike our town lots and sell them for ever so much money and go around with our noses in the air."

"Hold on! Hold on!" said the soldier, stopping her breathless patter. "Tell me all about this."

"Well, 'No Creek' came in this morning to tell dad and Oleon. Then the boat arrived with an old friend of Lee's, a Mr. Stark, so Lee told him, too, and now they're all gone back to his creek to stake more claims. They slipped away quietly to prevent suspicion, but I knew there was something up when the way Oleon acted, so I made Alpha tell me all about it. They haven't more than two hours' start of us, and we can overtake them easily."

"Well, why are you not going?"

"Yes, we are," she insisted impatiently. "You and I. That's why I came, so you can get a mine for your self and be a rich man, and so you can help me get one. I know the way. Hurry up!"

"No," said he as firm a tone as he could command. "In the first place, these men don't like me, and they don't want me to share in this."

"What do you care?"

"In the second place, I'm not a miner. I don't know how to proceed."

"Never mind, I do. I've heard nothing but mining all my life."

"In the third place, I don't think I have the right, for I'm a soldier. I'm working for Uncle Sam, and I don't believe I ought to take up mining claims. I'm not sure there is anything to prevent it, but neither am I sure it would be quite the square thing. Are you?"

"Why, of course it's all right," said Nedra, her eager face clouding with the look of a hurt child. "If you don't do it somebody else will."

But the lieutenant shook his head. "Maybe I'm foolish, but I can't see my way clear, much as I would like to."

"Oh, dear, oh, dear!" she exclaimed breathlessly. "I do so want to go. I want you to be rich, and I want to be rich myself. I want to be a fine lady and go outside and live like other girls. Why, it means heaven to a girl like me!" Her eyes were wet with the sudden dashing of her hopes, and her chin quivered in a sweet, girlish way that made the youth almost surrender on the instant.

"We couldn't possibly overtake them if we tried," he said, as if willing to treat with his conscience. "No, but we could beat them in. I know where Lee is working, for I went up last winter with 'Constantine' and his dog team over a short cut by way of Black Bear creek. You see, his creek makes a good bend to the southward and heads back toward the river, so by crossing the divide at the source of Black Bear you drop into it a few miles above his cabin."

While she made this appeal Nedra fought with herself. There were reasons why he longed to take this trip more than he had longed for anything since boyhood. These men of Flambéau had disregarded him and insisted on treating him with contemptuous distrust despite his repeated friendly overtures, wherefore he was hungry to beat them at their own game, hungry to thrust himself ahead of them and compel them to reckon with him as an equal, preferring a state of open enmity if necessary to this condition of indifferent toleration. Moreover, he knew that Nedra was coveted by half of them, and if he spent a night in the woods alone with her it would stir them up a bit, he fancied. By heaven, that would make them all up and notice him! But, then, it might work a wrong upon her. And yet would it? He was not so sure that it would. She had come to him, she was old enough to know her mind, and she was but a half breed girl, after all, who doubtless was not so simple as she seemed. Other men had no such scruples in this or any other land, and yet the young man hesitated until, encouraged by his silence, the girl came forward and spoke again impulsively:

"Don't be silly, Mr. Burrell. Come! Please come with me, won't you?"

She took him by the edges of his coat and drew him to her coaxingly. It may have been partly the spirit of revolt that had been growing in him all day, or it may have been wholly the sense of her there beside him, warm and pleading, but something came a great way to surge up through his veins, caused him to take her in his arms, fiercely kissing her upturned face again and again, crying softly, deep down in his throat:

"Yes, yes, yes! You little witch! I'll go anywhere with you! Anywhere! Anywhere!"

The impulse was wild and ungovernable, and it grew as his lips met hers, while, strangely enough, she made no resistance, yielding herself quietly till he found her arms wound softly about his neck and her face nestling close to his. Neither of them knew how long they stood thus, conscious of the beating of her heart against his breast as she lay there like a little fluttering bird and felt the drooping of his own head against her hair, her arms, her lips and her whole body clung to his in a sweet surrender, and yet there was nothing tender or unmanly about it, for his strength and ardor had lifted her and drawn her to him as on the sweep of a great wave.

She drew her face free and hid it against his neck, breathing softly and with shy timidity, as if the sound of the words she whispered half frightened her.

"I love you. I love you, Mende."

It may happen that a man will spend months in friendly and charming intimacy with a woman and never feel the violence or tenderness of passion till there comes a psychic moment or a physical touch that suddenly wraps him like a flame. So it was with Nedra. The sweet burden of this girl in his arms, the sense of her yielding lips, the warmth of her crowding hands, momentarily unleashed a leaping pack of mad desires, and it was she who finally drew herself away to remind him smilingly that he was wasting time.

"My lips will be here when those mines are worked out," she said. "No, no!" And she held him off as he came toward her again, insisting that if they were going they must be off at once and that he could have no more kisses for the present. "But, of course, it is a long trip, and we will have to sit down now and then to rest," she added shyly, at which he vowed that he was far from strong and could not walk but a little way at a time, yet, even so, he declared, the trail would be too short, even though it led to Canada.

"Then get your pack made up," she ordered, "for we must be well up toward the head of Black Bear creek before it grows dark enough to camp."

Swiftly he made his preparations. A madman was upon him now, and he took no pains to check or analyze the reasons for his decision. The thought of her loveliness in his arms once more far up among the perfumed wooded heights as the silent darkness stole upon them stirred in him such a fire to be gone that it was like a fever. He slipped away to the baggage with instructions for his corporal, but was back again in a moment. Finally he took up his burden of blanket and food, then said to her:

"Well, are you ready, little one?"

"Yes, Mende," she answered simply. "And you are sure you won't regret it?"

"Not while you love me."

He kissed her again before they stepped out on the river trail that wound along the bank.

Two hours later they paused where the foaming waters of Black Bear creek roiled down across a gravelled bar and into the silent, awe-inspiring river, standing at the entrance to a wooded, grassy valley, with rolling hills and domes displayed at its head, while back of them lay the town, six miles away, its low, squat buildings tiny and toylke, but distinctly silhouetted against the evening sky.

"Is it not true to rest?" said the soldier laughingly, yet with a look of yearning in his misty eyes as he took the girl's figure in his arms. But she only smiled up at him and, releasing his hold, led the way into the forest.

(To be continued in next issue.)

Shortly after Mr. Gladstone's death a local politician delivered an address upon the life of the statesman before a school. When he had finished, he said, "Now, can any of you tell me what a statesman is?" A little hand went up, and a little girl replied, "A statesman is a man who makes speeches." "Hardly that," answered the politician, who loved to tell this story. "For instance, I am not a statesman." The little hand again went up. "I know," and the answer came triumphantly, "A statesman is a man who makes good speeches."—Christian Register.

BILL TO STOP GRAIN CORNERS

Making it Felony if Goods Not Delivered

Senate Passes Resolution to Adjourn Since the May 15, But Will Be Reconsidered April 29.

THE STATE FAIR MEASURE

Springfield, Ill., April 23.—The senate passed the joint resolution introduced in that body last week by Senator Curtis providing for a sine die adjournment on May 15. One string was tied to the resolution however, a motion to reconsider being made and consideration being postponed until April 29. A motion by Senator Cruckank to tie the resolution up in the senate by laying it over until May 15 was defeated by a vote of 29 to 18 in favor of tabling his resolution. Governor Deneen and Speaker Sturteff both favor a sine die adjournment instead of a long recess being taken.

In the House.

In the house the bond bill providing for changing the ratio of assessment in the state from one-fifth of the actual value of property to one-third of the actual value, in order that cities may issue more bonds was advanced to third reading, after an amendment providing that cities and other municipalities shall vote on the bond issue before bonds can be issued, was tabled.

Speaker Sturteff took the floor in favor of the bill.

G. H. Wilson's bill making it a felony to sell or buy grain stuffs and other food stuffs without an actual delivery of the goods being made, was introduced in the house and referred to the committee on judiciary. Chipfield, chairman of that committee, said he would do all in his power to have the bill reported out favorably.

The State Fair Bill.

Blair's house bill providing for the removal of the state fair from Springfield to Peoria came upon the order of second reading in the house. Frank Quinn, of Peoria, spoke for the bill and Major James A. Connolly, Congressman from Graham and Ex-Governor Yates against. The house rendering with action. It will come up for passage in its due order of bills on third reading.

THE INDIAN MEDICINE MAN

can produce roots and herbs for every ailment, and cure diseases that baffle our most skilled physicians, who have spent years in the study of drugs.

From the roots and herbs of the field originated Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for thirty years has proved more potent and efficacious in curing female ills than any combination of drugs known.

An Irishman on board a man-of-war was ordered to haul in a tow line. After pulling in forty or fifty fathoms he muttered to himself: "Surely it's as long as today and tomorrow. It's a good week's work for any five in the ship. I'd luck to the leg or arm if I'll leave at last. What more of it yet? Ooh, murder! The day's mighty deep, to be sure!" After continuing in a similar strain, he suddenly stopped short, and, addressing the officer, exclaimed, "Had manners to me, sir. If I don't think somebody's out of the other end of it! It's missing!"—Christian Register.

Sea-Level Locks.

One of the Panama canal critics insists that locks should be dispensed with altogether. As locks would be necessary in a sea-level canal to overcome the different elevations of the two oceans, this objection should take an elementary course on the subject.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

William E. Curtis Describes Incidents in Lives of Famous Men of Times.

ABLE DEFENDER OF JACKSON.

(William E. Curtis in Chicago Record-Herald.)

Nashville, Tenn.—There were giants in those days at Nashville—Andrew Jackson, Sam Houston, John Bell, Thomas H. Benton, John Overton, Felix Grundy, Hugh L. White, David McBayock, James K. Polk and others of lesser stature—a group greater than was ever gathered in any other city in this land except Wash- ington. Secretary and Mrs. Dickin- son trace their descents to several of them, while their aunts and uncles and cousins and other collateral rela- tives have inter-married with the de- scendants of the rest. The Dickin- sons are thus of kin to nearly all the substantial old families of central Tennessee.

Felix Grundy, Secretary Dickin- son's great-grandfather, was reckoned as the greatest lawyer of his time, and rivaled Henry Clay as an orator. He assisted to frame the constitution of two states and was chief justice of the supreme court of two states, Kentucky and Tennessee. He was the intimate friend of Andrew Jack- son, Henry Clay, John C. Calhoun, Daniel Webster and Martin Van Buren at one and the same time, which indicates the versatility of his in- fluences and the tact and frankness of the man.

He was born in Berkeley county, Virginia, in 1777. His father was a rover who lived a little time in one place and then in another and finally settled in Kentucky, where he and three of his sons were killed by the Indians. Under these conditions it

SPAGHETTI AS AN ARTICLE OF DIET

Spaghetti is becoming more and more appreciated for its wonderfully nourish- ing quality and its unlimited cooking usefulness. People can do the hardest kind of work on a spaghetti diet. In fact, spaghetti entirely replaces meat in many homes—more than fulfilling every requirement for food, nutri- tion and variety, at a price wholly in- consistent with its good- ness. Be sure the spaghetti you buy is Faust Brand Spag- hetti. Made in America. Clean and wholesome through and through. You'll never in a hurry to serve it a new way—from soup to dessert. So adapt- able that you'll be constantly discover- ing different ways of preparing it. Sold by nearly all grocers—five and ten cent packages.

Book of over twenty Faust Spaghetti recipes will be sent you free on request. MAULI BROTHERS, ST. LOUIS, MO.

was impossible for Felix Grundy to have the benefits of a continuous education, and his mother, who seems to have been a woman of rare quali- ties, taught him nearly all that he learned in youth. But he managed to study law and was admitted to the bar when he was 26 years of age; at 22 was a member of the Kentucky constitutional convention; at 30 was chief justice of the state. After his first term he removed to Nashville, where he could find a wider field. He had been there only two years when he was elected to the national house of representatives, where he served through the war of 1812. In 1829 he was elected to the senate of the United States, serving till 1839, when he resigned to become attorney gen- eral in the Van Buren cabinet. He was a strong supporter of the Jackson administration, believed in a tariff for revenue only, and was bitterly opposed to protection.

Senator Grundy was a very stout man, short of stature, and weighed more than 300 pounds, being larger than the late David Davis; but had most agreeable manners, and was as famous as a conversationalist as an orator. He was extremely popular with the common people, and the reminiscences, biographies and his- tories of early days in Tennessee are filled with anecdotes about him.

He was selected by the city of Nashville to deliver an address of wel- come to General Jackson when the latter returned from the Florida wars to his home, May 16, 1814— "after which," says the Nashville

Whig, "General Jackson and Mr. Grundy were conducted to the Itell tavern and partook of a collation prepared for the occasion."

Mr. Grundy also delivered the ad- dress of welcome in behalf of the citi- zens of Nashville, April 5, 1815, when General Jackson returned from the battle of New Orleans. According to the Whig, he "recounted in glow- ing periods the leading events of the last campaign. The greatest enthusi- asm prevailed."

Felix Grundy's most famous ora- tion was delivered on the death of Thomas Jefferson. His last speech was delivered in support of Martin Van Buren against William Henry Harrison, in 1840, and he died a few days later.

Felix Grundy and Thomas H. Ben- ton were opposing counsel in a mur- der trial at Nashville in 1810—the former defending and Benton prose- cuting a man named Magness, who shot a neighbor named Patten Ander- son, who, as he believed, was about to attack his father. The case was very sensational, and similar in sev- eral respects to the recent Cooper- Carmack tragedy, involving important political questions, and nearly every person in the state was a partisan on one side or the other. The homicide was committed in the presence of Andrew Jackson, who was the principal witness for the prosecution, and during the trial occurred some of the incidents which have been repeated about him ever since. James Parton, in his "Life of Andrew Jackson," says:

"The feelings of all parties were aroused to the highest pitch of excite- ment, and the affair seemed to re- solve itself, at last, into a contest be- tween the partisans and the oppo- nents of General Jackson. One of my informants remembers seeing General Jackson, after dinner one day, harang- uing the multitude from the piazza of the tavern with fearful vehemence, the orator being evidently a little the worse for drink. One of the Magness party, going by at the time, thought proper to indicate his opinion of something that General Jackson said by shrugging his shoulders and say- ing: 'Pshaw!' Jackson paused in his speech and looked around for the ut- terer of the contemptuous interjec- tion, saying:

"Who dares to say pshaw at me? By —! I'll knock any man's head off, who says pshaw at me!"

Hyomel is Guaranteed to Cure Catarrh or Money Back.

When you suffer horribly from catarrh and are constantly sniffling and sneezing, hawking and spitting, and doing other disgusting things, remember there is a certain cure, called Hyomel (pronounced High-o-mel), which is guaranteed to cure.

Hyomel will give joyful relief to any catarrh sufferer in five minutes and it gives remarkable relief to con- sumptives.

Hyomel is medicated air prepared from the extracts taken from the giant eucalyptus trees of inland Aus- tralia, where catarrh or consumption are never known.

You breathe in this healing and antiseptic air through an inhaler and this air, with its peculiar soothing properties, passing over the inflamed and germ ridden membrane (for catarrh is a germ disease), kills the germ, allays the inflammation, and in a short time completely cures the disease.

A complete Hyomel outfit, which includes a hard rubber inhaler that will last a lifetime, and a bottle of Hyomel, costs only $1.00, extra bottles cost 50 cents. Sold by lead- ing druggists everywhere and in Pa- ducah by Gilbert's drug store who guarantees it on the money back plan.

BOY IS MISSING

FOLLOWING RECEIPT OF A THREATENING LETTER.

Cincinnati Police Fear Twelve-Year-Old Leo Mulhern Has Been Kidnaped.

Cincinnati, April 23.—Leo Mul- bern, the 12-year-old son of Mrs. John Mulhern, 413 West Fifth street is missing, following the receipt by his mother of two letters threatening to kidnap the boy. The police, to whom the boy's disappearance was reported today fear that they have another Willie Whitt case to solve.

This afternoon Mrs. Mulhern re- ceived a third letter saying that the boy had been kidnaped and that he would not be returned to his home until she deposited the money at the place designated in the former let- ters.

to A. A. Chisholm, of Treadwell, N. Y., now. His reason is well worth reading: "For a long time I suffered from indigestion, torpid liver, constipation, nervousness, and general debility," he writes. "I couldn't sleep, had no appetite, nor ambition, grew weaker every day in spite of all medical treatment. Then used Elec- tric Bitters. Twelve bottles restored all my old-time health and vigor. Now I can attend to business every day. It's a wonderful medicine." Infinitely for Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Blood and Nerves. 50c at all druggists.

SAYS HE RAN A LOTTERY.

Plano Voting Contest Gets Promoter
In Trouble.

Hattiesburg, Miss., April 23.—H. D. Dyer, who conducted a plano voting contest in this city for a number of local merchants was today arraigned before Justice Bolton and bound over to the grand jury charged with oper- ating a lottery. The section of the Mississippi code relating to lotteries reads:

"If any person in order to raise money for himself or another, or in any purpose whatsoever, shall pub- licly or privately put up a lottery to be drawn or advertised for, he shall on conviction be imprisoned in the penitentiary not exceeding five years."

Judge Bolton construes the statute so as to include voting contests as adventuring for gain. Inasmuch as voting contests have recently been conducted by nearly all of the daily papers of the state the result of this case in the circuit court will be await- ed with interest.

Dyer was recently bound over to the grand jury in a similar bond to answer a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The affidavits were made by ladies contestants, and the case has attracted much local at- tention.
